Mrs. James was at one time connected with the Salt Lake Opera company, and was a great favorite with the musicloving public of this city. She has been in New York for the past six years devoting herself to music study, also do-ing considerable concert and opera work. Upon arriving in the great east-ern city she met Mr. Cecil James, a much noted and prominent tenor singer, summer of 1907, and was heard in the Tabernacie by a few musicians at a private recital. The death of Mr. James, which occurred last fall, is really responsible for the return of Mrs. James to her home. She is residing with her mother, Mrs. Sam Levy, at the Avalon apartments on Third South street, between Second and Third East. She has many friends here among the musicians who have taken part in opera with her. and it is to be hoped that her Salt Lake friends will ere long have the pleasure of again hearing her beautiful dramatic mezzo soprano voice.
